FASP 2025 Annual Conference – Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs)

Continuing Education (CEs and CPDs)

How will CE and CPD credits be tracked?

CEs will be tracked using paper sign-in and sign-out sheets. Attendees are responsible for signing in and out at each eligible session to receive credit. FASP follows all requirements for CE and CPD providership and will report your sessions to CE Broker when applicable.

Who is eligible to receive CE and CPD credits?

FASP is approved by Florida Department of Health's Division of Medical Quality Assurance (MQA) to offer CEs toward licensure for continuing education. CEs are available for School Psychologists and Psychologists (50- 693); Mental Health Counselors, Marriage and Family Therapists and Clinical Social Workers (BAP-174). FASP is a NASP approved provider to offer CPDs (#1029). There will be strict adherence to virtual attendance procedures to allow us to continue to offer CEs and CPDs.

NOTE: FASP cannot offer in-service points for renewal of Florida certification for Certified School Psychologists or other educational specialists holding a professional certificate issued by the Florida Department of Education (FDOE). However, many school districts have procedures to obtain in-service points toward renewal of FDOE certificates under their master in-service component. Participants should check with their school district's certification officer to verify eligibility and procedures to earn in-service points for this workshop.

- Florida Licensed PSYCHOLOGISTS (PY# or LPY#) MUST attend “LIVE” sessions to earn CEs.
- Licensed SCHOOL PSYCHOLOGISTS (SS#) may receive CEs for live or on-demand sessions.

Will you report my sessions to CE Broker?

Yes. For eligible professionals, FASP will report your credits to CE Broker once attendance and evaluation requirements have been verified.

Will I receive a certificate?

Yes. Certificates will be available on-site when you sign-out. If attending Virtual+ on-demand, you will receive electronic certificates if you complete attendance verification checks and once you complete an electronic evaluation form.

Any additional requirements I should know about?

Due to state and national requirements, there will be strict adherence to attendance tracking for both in-person and virtual components. This ensures that FASP may continue offering high-quality, board-approved CEs and CPDs in the future.

Who can I contact with CE-related questions?

Please email CE@fasp.org with any questions or concerns about continuing education.
