CSFI Board Nominee

Iryna Kasi

Dr. Iryna Kasi is a licensed psychologist and university professor with experience supporting children, families, and school professionals across Florida. She currently serves as Director of a School Psychology Specialist Program at Nova Southeastern University, where she prepares future school psychologists to work in public schools and community settings. Through her work, Dr. Kasi remains deeply committed to advancing services that promote children's social, emotional, and academic well-being.

Dr. Kasi has been an active supporter of the Children's Services Fund through her involvement with the Florida Association of School Psychologists (FASP). She has volunteered numerous times during the Silent Auction at annual conferences and has contributed donated items to support fundraising efforts. Through these experiences, she has witnessed the meaningful impact CSFI has on children and families in need throughout Florida.

Her professional experience includes training school psychologists, collaborating with districts, and supporting initiatives that expand access to services for vulnerable populations. She understands the importance of sustainable fundraising efforts to ensure that children and families receive the resources and supports they deserve.

If selected to serve on the CSFI Board, Dr. Kasi hopes to continue strengthening fundraising efforts, increasing community engagement, and expanding awareness of the Fund's mission. She would be honored to contribute her time, leadership, and dedication to supporting children and families across the state of Florida.
